FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

Payment is expected at the time of service. Please speak with the receptionist at the time you schedule your appointment, if other arrangements are needed.
As a courtesy, we are happy to assist you in the filing of your insurance claims if you provide the requested information.
Insurance contracts are between you and your insurance company. Any charges not covered or paid in full by your insurance company are your responsibility.
Many plans state that you are covered "up to 80% or up to 100%". In reality most plans cover 50-70% of an average total fee, due to co-pays, deductibles and "usua and customary fees" set by the insurance company.
Insurance companies may state, "fees are above the usual and customary fees" "Usual and customary fees" are determined by the insurance company and are ar average of local doctors fees from 10 or so years ago. "Usual and customary fees do not represent current fees actually charged by doctors in the area.
If benefits are assigned to our office we will wait a maximum of sixty (60) days for payment from the insurance company. Any account balance after sixty (60) days becomes due in full.
We require a percentage of the fee at the time the appointment is made for procedures totaling $750 or more. A 48-hour notice is required for rescheduling this appointment; anything less than 48-hours results in a forfeiture of your deposit.
FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY
I understand that I am responsible for payment of all fees regardless of my insurance benefits.
